Literacy	Link to Education: Equality: Am I a fair person? What does it mean to treat people equally?  Spelling: Learning Objective <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To use words with /u / sound spelled ou  Grammar: Learning Objective: To explore the units related to SPAG and apply the same consistently in writing. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Verbs and Adverbs ➤ Apostrophes of possession and omission ➤ Adjectives: Exploring the use of adjectives in the novel. 	Discuss with your children on the importance of being fair. Show them scenarios where they can choose between being fair or unfair. Remind them that it is very important to inculcate and follow moral values as they are strong pillars in building up character. Discuss In some words, the letters ou are pronounced as if they were a u. For example: The ou in ‘touch’ sounds like the u in ‘much’. Ask the children to copy the following sentences, underlining the letters ou when they sound like u. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The shepherd was a young boy. • His lies caused a great deal of trouble. • He tricked the villagers a couple of times. • When the wolf came, it was tough. Remind the children that verbs are sometimes called 'doing' words or 'action' words. In order to create a sentence is must have a subject and a verb in it, without these two elements it is classed as a phrase. Using a variety of verbs makes writing more interesting. A thesaurus can be used to find different verbs that have a similar meaning. Discuss that an adverb is a word that describes, gives more information, or modifies a verb. For example: The cheetah quickly leapt up and chased the zebra. Remind the children that, to show possession, we can use an apostrophe and the letter ‘s’ at the end of a single noun. At the end of a plural noun that already ends in ‘s’ we add only one apostrophe. After a plural noun that does not end in ‘s’ , we can use an apostrophe and the letter ‘s’ just as the ned of a single noun. Discuss: An adjective is a word that describes a noun (the name of a thing or a place).	Best Moral Stories https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I6_Twpffldk verbs and adverbs Apostrophes https://www.turtlediary.com/lesson/the-apostrophe.html https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zf6c47h possessive apostrophes punctuation

Punctuations: Learning Objective

- To use basic punctuations to mark grammatical boundaries like commas and full stops are used to join and separate clauses; to identify in their writing which is more effective.

Text Level: Comprehension Skills Book

- Unit8- Fiction- The Wind in the Willows.
- Unit 9- Fiction (Historical)- Stowaway

Students to read and infer from the texts mentioned.

- Novel: Charlie and The Chocolate Factory

Spellings: Learning Objectives:

To practice new spellings regularly by 'look, say, cover, write, check' strategy' based on the novel.

- Focus on words ending in -ing. How do these letters join? What sound do they make?
- Words ending with 'ly'.
- use of some connectives

Grammar:

- To create sentences using adjectives, verbs and nouns for precision, clarity and impact.
- To explore how different texts appeal to readers using varied sentence structures and descriptive language.

Example:It was a brilliant book.

In the sentence above, the word 'brilliant' is an adjective because it tells us what the book (the noun) was like.

Adjectives can be placed before or after a noun.

For example:

The book she read on holiday was brilliant.

She read a brilliant book on holiday.

Give an unpunctuated paragraph to the children and ask them to rewrite the same using punctuations appropriately.

Create their own punctuation cards and explain its usage.

Enjoy Kung FU punctuation activity using the links.

Read the texts from the Comprehension Skills Book:

Story Telling: Become a story teller and ask questions related to characters, their feelings, different settings and the plot of the story.

Discuss the use of language by the author and check children's understanding of the language.

Ask questions with reference to the text.

Encourage the use of drama and storytelling to develop their ideas further.

Encourage the children to take time to answer questions:

What are the key elements of a story?

How does a novel build a story around a theme?

How does dialogue between the characters keep the story moving?

Encourage your child to make note of new words and their spellings especially by adding the suffixes 'ing' and 'ly' sensibly.

Watch the videos on suffixes and encourage your child to make words with the suffixes and use them in making sentences of their own.

To use basic punctuations to mark grammatical boundaries like commas, colons and semi-colons.

To use basic punctuations to mark grammatical boundaries like commas and speech marks.

Text level: Learning Objectives

- To investigate how the characters are presented - referring to the text.
- To differentiate between facts and opinions.
- To read the text for understanding and drawing inferences, retrieve information.
- To explore the setting of the text.
- To analyse the theme of the novel and relate it to real life.

Writing Topics:

- Summarising
- Writing: Formal Letter : Letter to Principal/ Teacher/STS/ RTA.
- Differentiated writing tasks based on the novel.

Speaking: Value of Patience and Perseverance- Based on the novel- Good things come to those who wait.

Listening Comprehension- Recognizing Literal Meaning and Understanding Vocabulary.

Discuss how adding an adjective makes a sentence interesting.
Talk to your children about varied sentence structure.

Discuss the importance of using Punctuation marks appropriately and the effect of using them in different ways. Encourage them to make a sentence using the words from spelling list using suitable punctuation marks.

Talk children about extended sentences using connectives like, because, as, since, however etc.

STREAM BASED ACTIVITY: Make a model of Willy Wonka’s chocolate factory using recycled material.

Explore the book cover of the novel. Show the front cover of the novel, ‘Charlie and the Chocolate factory’. Start a discussion with your child about the novel ask if he/she has read it before/seen the film/ Together make predictions of what could the story be?

Read chapter 1 – ‘Here comes Charlie’. What do we know about Charlie Bucket after reading this chapter? Do you like him? Why/why not? What would you say to him if you ever met him?

Talk about the characters portrayed in the novel.

Discuss the way the author has presented these characters. Look at some of the words/phrases that the authors has used to describe Charlie’s feelings and senses as he waits outside the famous chocolate factory. Model how to turn these into similes and full sentences.
