Title: Parental Engagement assembly Presenters / Conductors: Ms. Smitha Sajith Kumar (Parent of Anjana Menon 10A)
Aims & Objective: To inform students about the crucial life skills that will help them be better prepared for becoming an entrepreneur.
Summary: As part of the International Women's day celebration, Ms. Smitha Sajith Kumar– Parent of Anjana Menon (10A) was invited to conduct a virtual session for the students of Year 10 during the Registration. The topic was Essential Skills all future Entrepreneurs must master. Ms. Smitha who is the Associate Director at Island King Pools Group of companies in Dubai shared that to be a successful entrepreneur you must have strong business skills like the ability to multitask, delegate responsibilities to subordinates and make decisions regarding the business. She highlighted that in the current competitive world creativity and innovative thinking are most important and developing these skills now will empower students to take initiative, risk decisions, and accept responsibility to thrive in the challenging world. She expressed her gratitude to the FTs, HOY, and HOK for giving Year 10 students an opportunity to understand the importance of entrepreneurial skills as this is the right time to introduce these skills to the students as they may be aspiring to be entrepreneurs in the future.
