Title: Reading and Phonics Workshop

Presenters /Conductors: HODS and year 5&6 teachers.

- Aims & Objective-To share varied reading strategies to develop effective reading and literacy skills across Key-Stage 2.To share ideas on how to engage with your child to develop their reading skills.

Summary: As Barack Obama correctly noted, reading is the skill that opens the door to all other learning. Therefore, parents of kids in years 5 and 6 gathered to explore various reading strategies to help children build excellent reading and literacy competencies. The goal was to make this learning easier and more attainable. In the workshop, parents learned about the various stages of balanced reading as well as several reading comprehension techniques. For better understanding, parents were teamed up to create different questions. Additionally, they received information about the NGRT. They were encouraged to ask questions and provide input as well.

Parent/Teacher Feedback: It was undoubtedly an educational and resourceful session, Mrs. Jyoti Doddanagudde, a year 5A parent, commented.

Ms. Ekta Sahni HOY of year 5 said, "The workshop was indeed very informative and a great way to achieve a collaborative approach in order to instill reading skills."

Ms. Sayali Mhatre, form tutor of 6A, stated, "The workshop helped in the real sense of developing understanding among parents of what it means to be a balanced reader."
