Title: Roald Dahl Day, 13th September 2022

Presenters / Conductors: Form Tutors and students of Year 3

Aims & Objective: The purpose of celebration of Roald Dahl Day is to commemorate him and his achievements. Roald Dahl Day celebrates this creative master and all of the work he has done by bringing stories of fiction and wonder to the children everywhere.

Summary: 13th September is celebrated as Roald Dahl Day, to commemorate the birth and life of this amazing author. Students conducted the introductory session by sharing their knowledge about the author. They participated in several engaging activities such as a quiz, making posters based on Roald Dahl's books, sketching his portrait and solving Math's puzzles based on characters from his stories. All the activities were thoroughly enjoyed by the children. Overall it was an active and insightful learning experience for the children.

Student/Parent/Teacher Feedback:

Ms. Sajida Hussain (Form Tutor 3H): As we showcased the many facets of Roald Dahl's personality, students were inspired to read his books. They enjoyed the sketching of characters from the novel and were delighted to take part in the interactive sessions through the day.

Kaushiki (Student, 3F): I want to read all the novels that we read about today during the Roald Dahl celebration, just like Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

Organized by: HOD English Ms Ruchi, English Coordinator Ms. Prerita and Form Tutors of Year 3.
