Title: International Day of Peace and Gratitude

Presenters / Conductors: Form tutors and students of year 4

Aims & Objective: To reflect on the importance of peace and its application to real life.

Summary: The International Day of Peace was joyfully celebrated by Year 4 students, focusing on peace, kindness, respect, unity, and non-violence. Parents of 4J, Mrs Khushboo Kumari, Mr Anmol Sharma, and Mrs Uzmaa Ashraf, contributed meaningful parental engagement videos that helped students understand the importance of peace. Students expressed their ideas through posters, slogans, discussions, and interactive activities, learning how kindness, cooperation, respect, and peaceful communication can make a positive difference. They also reflected on the importance of appreciating different perspectives and resolving disagreements calmly. The activities encouraged students to practice kindness and respect in their everyday interactions. The celebration inspired students to become young ambassadors of peace by spreading kindness, harmony, cooperation, and unity in their daily lives.

Student/Parent/Teacher Feedback:

Ms. Subi Siju, Form Tutor 4H: This morning's celebration aimed to highlight the importance of peace across the world. The students participated with great enthusiasm, designing creative posters that conveyed meaningful messages of peace, kindness, unity, and love. Through this activity, students reflected on how small acts of kindness and respect can contribute to a more peaceful and harmonious environment.

Rudraunsh Rohith Poojary (4I): I really enjoyed the day. Making Peace Day posters was a fun way to share the message of spreading love and peace.

Organized by: Year 4 students and form tutors
