Title Title: Settling In Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) for Key Stage 3
Presenters / Conductors: KS3 Form Tutors & Subject Teachers

Aims & Objectives:
To share early observations on how students are settling into the new academic year — academically, socially and emotionally; to strengthen the home–school partnership through open, two-way dialogue; to discuss each learner's strengths, learning habits and next steps; and to offer parents flexible access to teachers through both online and face-to-face meetings.

Summary: The Settling In PTM for Key Stage 3, held on 3rd, 5th and 6th October 2026, gave parents an early and valuable opportunity to understand how their children were adjusting to the new academic year. Hosted by KS3 Form Tutors and Subject Teachers, the meetings focused on academic readiness, classroom routines, attendance and punctuality, social integration and wellbeing — helping to set strong foundations for the term ahead.

To ensure flexibility and accessibility for every family, the PTM was delivered in two formats. The online session on 3rd October allowed parents to connect with teachers virtually from the comfort of their homes, while the face-to-face sessions on 5th and 6th October brought parents and teachers together on campus, enabling personal, meaningful conversations about each child's progress, strengths and areas for growth. Across both formats, teachers shared early observations on engagement, effort and learning habits, and parents contributed valuable insights about their child's routines and confidence at home.

The meetings concluded with agreed next steps and practical strategies to support each learner in school and at home, reinforcing the collective goal of nurturing confident, independent, and resilient learners. Because when home and school work hand in hand, every child settles, grows and shines. Together, we are ready to SPARKLE!
