Title: International Day of Peace

Presenters / Conductors: Nheil,

Aims & Objective: To develop students' awareness of the importance of peace, encouraging them to embrace empathy, respect diversity, resolve conflicts peacefully, and contribute to a harmonious world.

Summary: The session began with an introduction to the significance of the International Day of Peace, highlighting the importance of peace, harmony, and mutual respect in creating a better world. Students were encouraged to understand that peace is not simply the absence of conflict, but also the presence of kindness, understanding, empathy, and cooperation. A reflective discussion, followed by a role play video and word search was done during which students explored ways in which they can promote peace in their everyday lives, such as listening to others, resolving disagreements calmly, respecting different opinions, and showing kindness and compassion. The discussion emphasized how small acts of understanding and respect can make a meaningful difference in building peaceful relationships and communities. The assembly concluded with the message that peace begins with each one of us.
