Provide resources or toys that promote cooperative play and engage in play with your child. Talk about why sharing is good for them and for others. You can say something like, ‘When you share your toys with your friend, everyone gets to have fun’. Provide positive feedback as they role play being a doctor, daddy, mummy etc. Notice and acknowledge children’s thoughtfulness towards each other as they imitate the way adults behave around them, explore new ideas and share feelings and emotions. Show trust in young children’s abilities by displaying them how to use and care for materials, letting them try and notice when they need help; offering but not taking over. Whether it is solitary play, or alongside others, like in the park, on a slide, going on a treasure hunt etc. Encourage your child to explore and talk about what they are doing, appreciating their ideas and ways of doing things. Offer help with activities when asked but not before and look at struggle and mistakes as important parts of learning. Talk to your child about their belongings. Encourage them to verbally express their preferences and choose to do an activity.	   I CAN DO IT, READ ALOUD Self Esteem for Kids Song   Building Self Confidence   Social Emotional Learning Videos clinic sign, parking sign, speed sign, shopping malls, food outlets etc.

Encourage your child to select books that interest him/her. Create an attractive reading area where you can read aloud and enjoy looking at picture books together and describing them.

Encourage your child to draw independently and use their imagination. Let them talk about their drawings and describe their drawing. Listen intently to your child as they describe their drawings and marks. Even though their marks are not recognizable or don't show any resemblance, praise them after they have finished drawing by giving them stickers or hugs and high-fives.

Some activities which you can practice at home are making marks in sand, using a brush to make marks or using large handed rollers.

Encourage your child to find things around the house beginning with the letter sounds taught. Find pictures or letter sounds taught in magazines, newspapers and various print media around their environment. Make shapes of letters out of play dough or with paint. Label things at home etc.

Show and encourage them to blend and read: at, it, in, sat, pat, nit, tap, sap, pin, nip, pit, tip, cat, kit, pet.

Sight words to look and read: I, the, is, to and go.

Encourage your child to write letters in the sand, in the air and on your back. Play word bingo where each player has to give a word beginning with a given sound.
